

A] PRAXIS 2022 Cancellation & Refund Policy

1. There is no refund if you cancel this year, unless the person tests positive for COVID between July 25th and August 4th. We will need a copy of the medical report for verification. In that case, we will carry forward the registration to the next edition. Please note that registration amount and room costs (if applicable) may vary for the next edition and the differential amount will need to be paid.
2. If the person cannot make it to the next edition then we will refund 50% of the paid amount next year.
3. If the organisers cancel or postpone PRAXIS because of a government lockdown in the venue city - Chandigarh in the first week of August, then we will carry forward the registration to the next edition. If the person cannot make it to the next edition for whatever reason we will refund 75% of the paid amount next year.

B] PRAXIS attendee name change policy for 2022

1. For PRAXIS 2022, we can accommodate attendee name change requests until 5th July only.
2. In case a registration is carried forward to the next edition, name change requests will be handles on a case-by-case basis. The organisers reserve the right to decline any such requests.
3. Name change is not permitted for tickets purchased on Explara.

The organisers reserve the right to update the policy without prior notice.*
