

#PRAXIS9

Hi PRAXISian,

By now you would have received and read the first email that we sent out last week. In case you missed it, you may read it here - bit.ly/PRAXIS9DEM1

1. We hope you have also filled the form that we requested you to fill in. Kindly do so if you have not yet filled it in - bit.ly/PRAXIS9DELEGATEINFO

2. We are looking forward to seeing you next Friday for lunch at 12 noon followed by the summit at 2 pm. Kindly help us to continue being the world's most punctual conference for the ninth time in succession. While sessions are in progress, we request you to be seated in the ball room.

3. We would like to remind you that summit access is only for those who are in receipt of this email, and we will not be able to entertain walk-ins as well as name changes or replacements after July 31st

4. We are aware that the pandemic has not ended but life has to go on. We are taking the following precautions:

- a) Providing sanitizers to be used as often as one has to
- b) Discouraging handshakes to the best possible extent. Greeting with folded hands (Namaste) should be fine.
- c) Ensuring that inside the ball room masks are mandatory - similar to what it is on an aircraft
- d) We are also providing water bottles that you may fill and use
- e) If you do not feel you are fit to attend because of a health condition, please use your discretion and make a choice that is in your best interest

5. During the event all delegates will be required to wear the lanyard and badge

- a). Lanyards for most delegates will be orange in colour.
- b). Speakers and leaders from most partner organisations will have a blue lanyard.

6. At the time of summit check-in everyone will receive a sheet of coupons that maybe used for meals and alcoholic beverages. Those who have mentioned that they are teetotallers will have the option to choose a gift voucher in lieu of the alcohol beverage coupons. Soft beverages do not require coupons. In case one misplaces a food coupon we will be able to replace them for a nominal fee of Rs 4000/- per coupon.

7. There are interesting prizes to be won over the two days. You may check this link for more details and also check this dashboard bit.ly/PRAXIS9TWEETS

8. We have attached the list of delegates who will attend the ninth edition. Feel free to connect with that long-lost friend or make a new connection by looking for them on a social network.

9. Lastly, we are looking for volunteers to join in for a practice session during dinner break on Day 1 at 830 pm at Satluj Hall who will put together a fun dance that will be performed the following day at the time of closure. If you would like to be part of the choreography, reply to this tweet.
